

TEAMTIME

CREATIVE TEAM BUILDING THROUGH POTTERY

Hands-on workshops that bring teams together, inspire creativity, and create lasting memories.

MORE THAN A WORKSHOP. A TEAM EXPERIENCE YOU'LL REMEMBER.

At Fresh Ceramics, we create hands-on pottery workshops that bring people together through creativity. Whether your team is celebrating a milestone, welcoming new colleagues, or simply taking a break from everyday work, our experiences encourage connection, collaboration, and fun.

Choose from our studios, your office, or our remote Clay Kits—we'll take care of the rest.

MAKE YOUR NEXT TEAM EVENT CREATIVE

We host Teamtime workshops in two modern studios in Vienna—bright, welcoming spaces designed for creative team experiences.

Our studios accommodate up to 45 participants. For larger groups, we bring the workshop directly to your office or event location.

Choose the format that fits your team. Once you've selected a date, we'll take care of the rest.

CERAMICS PAINTING TO GO

A creative team experience, wherever you are.

Take a break from the usual team routine and get creative together. With Ceramics Painting To Go, we bring the ceramics painting experience to your office, company retreat, or any location that works for your team.

We bring everything along—from a fun selection of ceramic shapes to choose from to plenty of colours and brushes. Our team is there to guide you through the painting process, share tips and tricks, and help everyone create something they'll love. No experience needed, just come as you are and enjoy making something together.

And once the painting is done, you can leave the rest to us. We take care of the glazing and firing, as well as the handling and transport of your pieces back to our studio. Once they're finished, we'll ship them directly to you.

CLAY TO GO — ONLINE & HYBRID

One team experience—whether you're together, remote, or both.

Bring your entire team together, no matter where people are working. Whether everyone joins from home, gathers in the office, or connects across multiple locations, our instructors guide the experience live while every participant creates their own ceramic piece.

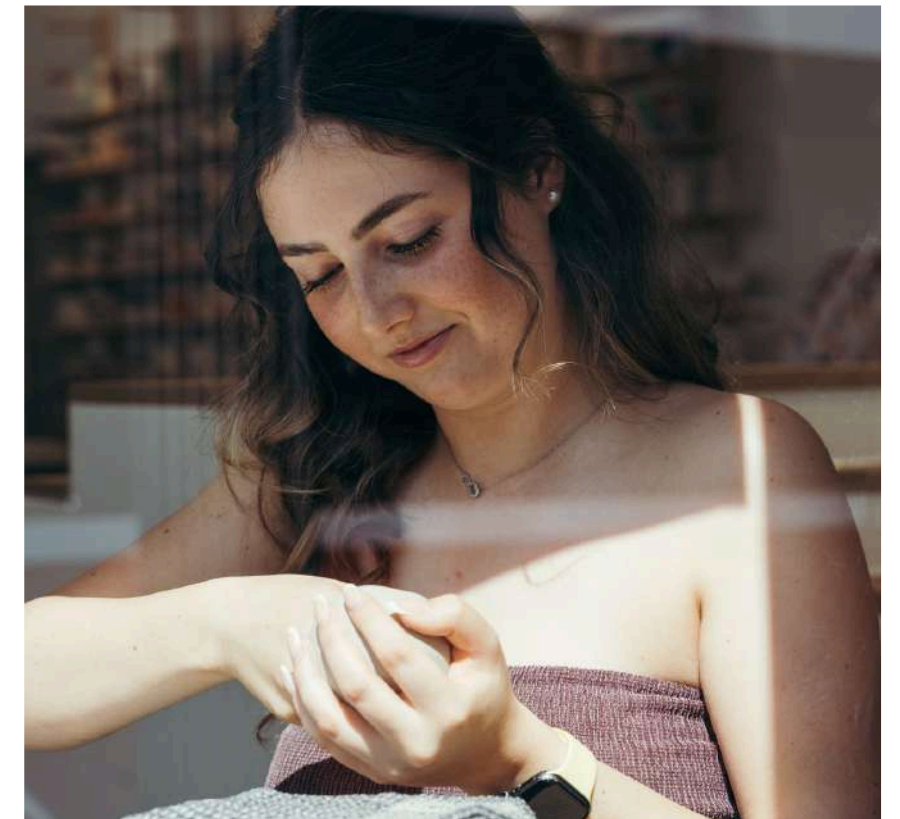

We send Clay Kits directly to remote participants and can host the workshop at your office at the same time, creating one shared event that includes everyone. After the workshop, we professionally fire, glaze, and return each handmade piece.

Perfect for hybrid teams, international offices, remote employees, and companies with multiple locations, this format makes it easy to create meaningful connections across distance.
